Getting Our Economy

BACK ON TRACK

A Forum on Job Creation, Public Revenue and
An Economy That Works for the 99%

Monday, Nov. 14
1 to 3 p.m.

Machinists Union Hall
9125 15th Pl. South,
Seattle

The Occupy Wall Street protests have sparked a national conversation about the state of the economy and income inequality in our country. How can the energy, momentum and message of this "We Are the 99%" movement connect to ongoing struggles for economic justice in a way that win concrete changes?

Attend this free forum sponsored by labor, community, small business and faith communities that will address this question with a focus on creating jobs, stopping cuts in public services and economic infrastructure, and demanding that big corporations and the wealthy pay their fair share to fix the economy.

Registration is not required, but please RSVP to Jan at jhays@wslc.org.

This event is sponsored by Washington State Labor Council, AFL-CIO; Washington Community Action Network; Main Street Alliance; Casa Latina; OneAmerica; and the Puget Sound Alliance for Retired Americans.
